I am strongly opposed to your attempt to change the rules of my IRA.

I view this as a political act but I don't understand the Administration's motive. Is it the first step to force all IRA owners into surrendering their IRA to the state and receive a less than 2% annual US bond interest rate? The Administration and the Fed have run an economy based on "zero" interest rates since 2008. All in a doomed to fail bid to keep the interest low on our National debt so the political promises merry go round can continue.

I ask you to leave my IRA alone.
